
WIB@L Mentee Training

Ingrid Guo - President of Women in Business at Lawrenceville
(WIB@L)

Why mentorship?

- Learn more about your interested field through the lens of someone who was in the same shoes as you were in high school
 - Connect with an executive-level alumni to learn valuable skills

Purpose

- Wanted to find a way to connect Lville students to alumni in a productive way and give an opportunity for alumni to give back in a meaningful way

Basic Commitments

- 30 min-1hr Monthly Virtual Meeting
 - You will schedule a time to meet each month
 - Communication is KEY
 - Your job is to keep in touch with your mentor yourself through email
 - Feedback Forms
 - You are expected to fill out a in-depth feedback forms at the end of Winter Term and Spring Term

Respect your mentor

- Respect goes both ways
 - Best relationships are built on trust
 - Be punctual
 - Respect each other's time

What you PUT IN... is what you GET OUT.

- Identify your goals
 - What do you hope to get out of this relationship?
 - Career advice? Life experiences? Specific unfamiliar topics of interest?
 - What do you hope to give?
 - Be curious and open.
 - Before each meeting...
 - Email the agenda you want to talk about ahead of time. That way, the mentor can also prepare.

Dismissal Policies

- Commitments are not being upheld
