

START YOUR CAREER PLANNING IN HIGH SCHOOL

WHAT IS NETWORKING?

HOW TO FIND A MENTOR? WHY MENTORSHIP IS IMPORTANT IN HIGH SCHOOL, COLLEGE AND BEYOND?

HOW TO BUILD YOUR PERSONAL BRAND TO MARKET TO COLLEGES AND FUTURE EMPLOYERS?

“The future depends on what you do today”

Wed. Jan. 8th 7:00 PM - 8:00 PM
McGraw Reading Room @ Bunn

Women in Business at Lawrenceville (WIB@L) is pleased to invite Mrs. Kate Hammond to give a guest speech on career planning in high school. This speech/lecture is the first one in our leadership speech series and is open for all Lawrenceville students.

- Kate Hammond is a career transition advisor at Princeton University.

Kate received her MBA from The Wharton Business School at UPenn. She has extensive experience advising college students on career planning. She has held various executive level positions in a variety of companies & industries over the last 30 years

- Spaces are limited to the first 30 students.